Says Union Records Destroyed in 1954

Official Says Janitor Put Them in Trash

Brewster Concedes System Would Allow Big Embezzlement

WASHINGTON (AP)—Frank W. Brewster testified today the financial records of the Western Conference of Teamsters were destroyed in 1954—the same year the internal revenue service asked for them.

Brewster said a janitor put the records in the trash because of orders from the Seattle fire department to clean up a storage room as a fire hazard.

Brewster is head of the union's 11-state Western Conference.

Under questioning from investigating senators, he conceded that the conference's bookkeeping system was such that it would be "possible" to embezzle thousands of dollars in union funds. But Brewster said it was "not probable."

The questioning went into financial matters after Brewster entered a general denial that he and other union officers conspired to control rackets in Portland, Ore. He called this allegation "absolutely fantastic and completely untrue."

Brewster, chairman of the Western Conference of Teamsters, testified at the Senate committee's hearings on charges that he and some other Teamster bigwigs conspired to take over the Portland underworld.

Reading from a prepared statement, Brewster said:

"As to the alleged conspiracy on the part of the Teamsters or any official or employee thereof to engage in any racket in Portland in connivance with any public official of that city, I will make the following categorical statements under oath:

"1. I know of no conspiracy or plan or effort on the part of the Teamsters or any official or employee thereof to engage in any racket in the city of Portland or elsewhere in collaboration with any public official or anyone else.

"2. I know of no conspiracy or plan or effort on the part of the Teamsters or any official or employee thereof to gain control of the law enforcement agencies of the City of Portland, the State of Oregon, or of any official of said city or state. Our sole interest there is the same as in every state, that is, to elect officials who are not anti-labor and who will oppose so-called right-to-work laws.

"3. I have never authorized Elkins, Maloney or McLaughlin, directly or indirectly to represent the Teamsters or myself in Portland or anywhere else on any matter.

"4. I have never authorized anyone directly or indirectly, to engage in any racket on behalf of the Teamsters or myself in Portland or anywhere else."

April 30 Is Deadline For Wool Receipts

Carl E. Johnson, office manager of the Pettis County ASO Office, announces April 30, as the final date for submitting sale documents and evidence for wool and unshorn lambs, to the county office. Such documents must be those bearing dates from April 1, 1956 to March 31, 1957, inclusive. It is thought that incentive payments will be made on approximately the same basis as those of last year.

"We believe all wool growers should make every effort to have their evidence on file early," Johnson said.

Opposes School Aid

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—H. E. Slusher, president of the Missouri Farm Bureau Federation, came out today against federal aid for school buildings. He said "Missouri has nothing to gain" from such proposals.

Asks Money Records

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate committee investigating rackets today "requested" Dave Beck, international president of the Teamsters' Union, to furnish all his financial records for the years 1949 through 1955.

Late Snowstorm Levels Blows On Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A destructive late winter snowstorm leveled fresh blows at Minnesota today with winds up to 50 miles an hour. Hundreds of persons were stranded and scores of schools closed.

Four highway deaths were directly attributed to the storm which dumped up to a foot of snow in some parts of the state. Long stretches of highways were impassable. Drifts piled up as high as 10 feet in northern Minnesota.

Nearly a thousand basketball fans from Brainerd, Minn., were unable to get home after attending a game in Moorhead. Hotels, motels and private homes there and in neighboring Fargo, N.D., were jammed by the overflow.

Bus travel in northern Minnesota was at a virtual standstill. Highway crews trying to plow roads were met by wind-driven snow that held visibility to near zero.

A 100-mile wide strip from Sioux Falls, S.D., to Duluth, Minn., lay under an average of six to eight inches of new snow. Snowfall had diminished today over most of the state but the northeastern section braced for more.

Hibbing in northern Minnesota was totally snowed in. Mail and milk deliveries were canceled.

Michigan Official Asks Teamster Query

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan's attorney general, Thomas M. Kavanagh, today asked the special Senate committee investigating labor-industry racketeering to inquire into reports that the Teamsters Union in Detroit used tiny recording devices to smuggle secret testimony out of a grand jury chamber.

Kavanagh wrote Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.), chairman of the committee that his office has been investigating the matter, but has been "hampered by the lack of subpoena power and other legal machinery."

UN Has Major Group

Small Force Represents Egypt's Power In Gaza Area

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—The might of Egypt was represented in the Gaza Strip today by a major general designated governor, 50 military policemen, 10 officers and 12 civilian officials.

Otherwise 2,600 U.N. troops still were in the major military force in the disputed area following the arrival in Gaza City yesterday of the group sent by President Nasser to resume civilian control for Egypt.

The Israelis pulled out of Gaza last Thursday on the assumption the U. N. Emergency Force would exercise both military and civil control of the Mediterranean coastal area alongside Israel's Negev Desert.

The new Egyptian governor of Gaza, Maj. Gen. Hassan Abdel Latif, arrived late yesterday from Cairo with five military and civilian aides.

A UNEF platoon was on hand to receive him, and the Arabs in Gaza hailed him with shouts of "Long live Nasser, long live Arabism, welcome to the Egyptian administration."

U. N. Undersecretary Ralph Bunche and Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, UNEF commander, already were in Gaza when the Egyptian party arrived.

The United States, meanwhile, tried to appease Israel for the failure to keep Egypt out of Gaza. State Department press officer Lincoln White told newsmen talks would start soon on resumption of U. S. aid to the Jewish nation.

White declined to say whether resumption of aid to Egypt and Jordan also was being considered. American financial assistance for all three countries were halted when Israel attacked Egypt Oct. 29.

In London, the governing Conservative party and the opposition Laborites joined in demanding that the U. N. guarantee Israel against Arab aggression.

Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd told the House of Commons any settlement in the Middle East must include guarantees against Israel's extermination as well as guarantees for the Arabs against Israel's territorial expansion. He declared that the Gaza Strip should be made a U. N. responsibility. Clearly referring to both the United States and United Nations, he said:

"Those who brought pressure to bear upon us and France and Israel should have to face up to the facts of the situation and undertake a proper share for securing a solution."

Aneurin Bevan, chief foreign affairs spokesman for the Laborites, told Commons that both Laborites and Conservatives expect the United Nations to "see to it that Israel's act of courageous faith (in pulling out of the Gaza and Aqaba areas) will not go unrequited."

G.O.P. City Convention

School and Council Candidates Named

The Republican City Convention was held Thursday night in the Assembly Room of the Courthouse at which time the member of the Sedalia School Board was nominated and the party candidates for Councilmen from the four wards.

Mrs. Mary Studer, 906 South Barrett, wife of former Mayor Herbert Studer, was elected the Republican candidate to the School Board. Nomination at the party convention is almost the same as election to the Board as it is a non-partisan board and only two members are to be elected.

Mrs. Studer defeated Harry Brougher, present Republican member of the Board. She won by a vote of 65 to 25, one voting delegate being absent.

This was the only fight on the convention floor, the candidates for the City Council being nominated without opposition.

First Ward candidate is William A. "Bill" Derendinger, 2619 North Woodlawn Drive; Second Ward, Leroy Iuchs, 120 East Seventh; Third Ward, William H. Guenther, 1608 East 10th; and Fourth Ward, Richard M. "Dick" Battles, 1715 South Beacon.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Cleo Schumacher, City chairman.

The delegates to the convention from two precincts which did not appear in the paper previously, having not been reported in are: Second Ward, First precinct, Rev. James Mitchell, O. O. Lawson, Clarence Mitchell, Ellis L. Smith, Clarence Smallwood; alternates, Mrs. Jesse Stanley, Rev. George Ray, Mrs. Louise Jackson, Mrs. Julia Crowley, and Mrs. Sebila Ray.

Tipton Council Votes to Have Park Meters

Mayor Virgil R. Helms announces that at the regular city council meeting it was voted to install parking meters on two blocks of Tipton's business streets, from the Tipton Manufacturing Co. building east beyond Hotel Tipton.

The meters will be installed the latter part of April or the first of May and Mayor Helms states that they will be on a trial basis for a period of six months. At that time they will either remain or be returned to the firm with which the city made the contract, the Duncan Parking Meter Corp. of Chicago.

Eighty meters will be placed and they will be streamlined and very modern in appearance. An estimated intake will be $300 a month and the city retains half until they are paid for. The part received by the city will go to the street and alley maintenance fund.

In a poll taken from the merchants, better than 95 per cent were in favor of trying out the new system.

The meters take pennies, nickels and dimes. A penny gives 12 minutes' time, a nickel one hour, and a dime two hours. Those who over-park will be ticketed with the amount due and this together with a quarter may be placed in a courtesy box of which there will be four conveniently located. This is an honor system which will save time in appearing to pay the charges.

Committeeman, Clarence Mitchell; Committeewoman, Mrs. Bernice Jones.

First Ward, Second precinct, alternates, Carl G. Schrader, Jack Knist, Mrs. Willis Jabas, Mrs. Dorothy Kindred, Willis Jabas, Mrs. Nathalia Poynter, Mrs. Donald Simon and Mrs. S. L. Friend.

Committeeman and woman of the Second Ward, Third precinct, are Leroy Iuchs and Mrs. C. W. Harris.

Wants Editors To Lose Their Citizenship

Proposes Action After Two Refuse To Answer Queries

NEW YORK (AP)—A congressman today recommended revocation of the citizenship of two foreign language newspaper editors.

Rep. Gordon H. Scherer (R-Ohio) made the suggestion after the editors refused to answer questions before a subcommittee of the House Committee on un-American Activities.

Revocation, he said, is "the only effective way we're going to deal with these people."

Rep. Morgan Moulder (D-Mo.) said the recommendation would be placed before the full committee.

Scherer directed his remarks against Michael Tkach of Manhattan, editor of the Ukrainian Daily News, and Anthony Binba of Richmond Hill, Queens, editor of a Lithuanian paper, "Sviesa."

The subcommittee is investigating dissemination of Communist propaganda in the United States by the Communist and foreign press.

Tkach and Binba invoked the First and Fifth amendments repeatedly under questioning by Richard Arens, committee counsel. They declined to say for whom they worked or what they did, other than that their occupation was "journalism."

Scherer said some articles appearing in the foreign language press during the Korean war amounted to treason.

Arens asked Tkach whether he was ashamed of editorials in his newspaper condemning the action of U. S. forces in Korea. Tkach again invoked the Fifth Amendment. The response was the same when asked whether he ever had worked with anyone connected with the Soviet secret police.

New York Patrolman's Sunny Afternoon Spins Into Chaos

NEW YORK (AP)—To tone down an old saying, the road to hades is paved with good intentions.

The scene was Union Square, yesterday. The city basked under a warm sun and springlike temperature.

Patrolman Robert Stark benignly patrolled his beat. Traffic on the busy square, at 14th Street, was no more snarled than usual.

Largest Cut So Far Tops $516 Million

Agencies Affected Include VA, Civil Defense and GSA

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today slashed $516,993,300 from the $5,923,195,000 in new funds President Eisenhower requested for 18 miscellaneous agencies.

It was the biggest cut, money-wise, made by the committee on four bills it has sent to the House this year. The funds are for the fiscal year starting July 1.

If the House upholds the committee next week, it will have cut 660 million dollars from presidential requests totaling about $10,300,000,000 to date. On the three previous bills, none of which has passed the Senate, the House has followed its committee's recommendations without change.

Major slashes imposed by the committee in the independent offices appropriation bill were $206,657,700 from Veterans Administration funds, $71,700,000 from the Civil Defense Administration, and $165,239,400 from the General Services Administration.

Reductions recommended in VA allotments included $4,068,000 in operating expenses, $1,293,200 in medical administration and miscellaneous funds, 7 1/2 millions in hospital construction and replacement programs, 149 1/4 millions in compensation and pension funds, and $41,473,000 in readjustment benefits. Congress frequently has cut these funds in past years only to restore them subsequently in supplemental bills.

There was no cut in the 702 millions requested for operation of the VA hospital program, which includes 173 hospitals expected to provide care and treatment for an average of 140,800 veterans in 1958.

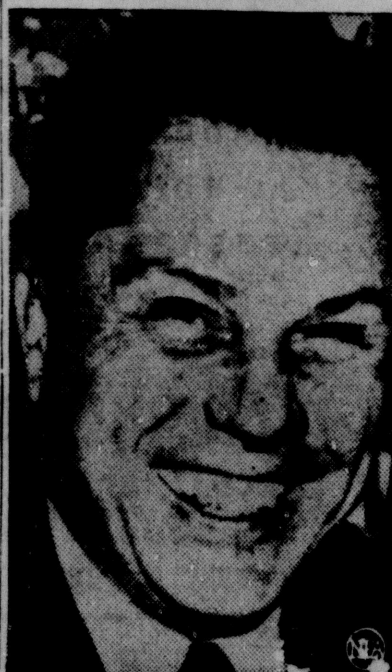

Neither was there any reduction in the 179 millions requested for outpatient medical and dental care for veterans with service-connected disabilities.

In reducing funds for new hospital construction, the committee called for an end to what it described as "the gingerbread and waste that often characterizes VA hospital construction." The funds allotted provide for 18 projects next year, the two largest being at Nashville, Tenn., and Jackson, Miss.

Police Continue Suspect Roundup In Rebel Clash

HAVANA (AP)—Cuban police today continued a widespread roundup of suspects in Wednesday's attack on the presidential palace by student rebels.

There was no government announcement on the number detained, but unofficial estimates were that about 200 had been taken in for questioning. It was reported most of them had been released.

Havana was calm and outwardly normal today, with business operating as usual. Four tanks which guarded approaches to the palace yesterday were withdrawn this morning. A reinforced military guard continued on duty.

Police detachments continued to hold Havana University, which has been closed since November because of antigovernment conspiracies among the students.

The government gave out no fresh details of its military operations against Fidel Castro, student rebel leader held up in the Sierra Maestra in eastern Cuba with a band of followers. Members of the Castro movement led Wednesday's attack on the palace.

City Manager Asks Kansas City Budget Exceeding Revenue

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A budget exceeding expected revenue by nearly 1½ million dollars has been recommended to the City Council by City Manager L. P. Cookingham.

He suggested spending $22,403,535 in the next fiscal year, after slashing over five millions off the requests of department heads.

In the face of the expected deficit, Cookingham suggested 14 sources of possible additional revenue totaling about 3½ million. The list included various minor taxes.

Kansas Citizens last Tuesday voted 4 to 1 against a proposed 1 per cent earnings tax which would have yielded more than seven million dollars.

Jaycees Hear Speech On Democracy

J. W. Van Der Ent was guest speaker and Airmen of the Month from Whiteman Air Force Base were guests at the regular meeting of the Jaycees Thursday night.

Van Der Ent spoke on "Democracy."
Van Der Ent, born in Java and who has become a citizen of the United States, told of his surprise when he came to this country and saw how the Americans took democracy for granted. He stressed the need for individual responsibility in exercising the privileges a democracy permits.

Van Der Ent first came to this country during World War II to receive training here as a Dutch Air Force pilot and returned to live in 1948. He became a citizen in 1950 and is now employed at the National Engineering Co.

Nominations were made for new officers. These nominations will be voted on at the next meeting on March 28. The Jaycees also voted to move their regular meeting place to the Pacific Cafe.

Dan Alexander, chairman of the Teenage Road-e-o, said the event would be conducted at the State Fairgrounds April 14 and that the road-e-o has been excellent. The area-e-o is a competitive test of driving skill for teenagers with driving licenses. The local winner will compete on a state level, and state winners will participate in a national Teenage Road-e-o.

Israel Leader Returns to US For Gaza Talks

TEL AVIV (AP)—Foreign Minister Golda Meir is returning to the United States tonight to talk with the State Department about how seriously Israel regards the Gaza situation.

Her trip was decided upon at an emergency conference with Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion and other political leaders and army representatives.

An Egyptian general and a staff of 72 claimed the civil administration of the Gaza Strip yesterday on orders from Egyptian President Nasser.

Ben-Gurion had warned earlier that his government reserved "freedom of action" if the Egyptians took back the Gaza Strip. He said he would use "all political and security steps" to bar the Egyptians.

The Israelis claim that Egypt, which controlled the Strip under the 1949 armistice until the Israelis seized the region last fall, used Gaza as a base for fedayeen raiders and has expressed belief the Egyptians will do so again.

AEC Reports Atomic Reactor Core Exploded During Feb. 12 Tests

LOS ALAMOS, N. M. (AP)—The AEC said today the core of a test atomic power reactor exploded during testing on Feb. 12. No one was injured, but the power unit was destroyed.

The reactor core—in essence a stripped down model of a power reactor—was, because of its "naked" nature, whimsically dubbed "The Godiva."

It consisted of a sphere of uranium 235 about 6½ inches in diameter suspended on a tripod. The AEC announcement said no damage was done to the building "and radiation contamination has been removed by standard cleaning methods."

Jury Decides Student Pilot Is Insane Now

DES MOINES (AP)—Roy Soderquist, 23, student pilot who buzzed St. Louis for four hours in a stolen airplane Jan. 29, is "insane at this time," a District Court jury ruled last night.

The jury, deliberating more than 35 hours, had to decide on Soderquist's mental state at this time, not when the plane incident occurred.

Soderquist has been indicted for going armed with intent to commit unlawful acts, in connection with the flight.

The next step in the case will be determined Saturday at a hearing between Dist. Judge Dring D. Needham; Jens Grothe, attorney for Soderquist; and County Atty. Ray Hanrahan.

Soderquist, son of Mrs. Rudolph Soderquist of Clio, probably will be committed to the insane ward at the Anamosa Men's Reformatory. From there he can be transferred to the psychopathic hospital at Iowa City for treatment.

If medical specialists declare him sane after treatment, he must return to court here to face the indictment.

Germans Confirm American Forces Have Atomic Weapons There
BONN, Germany (AP)—The Defense Ministry today confirmed that American forces in West Germany are armed with atomic weapons.

A spokesman for the West German ministry said the A-weapons include projectiles, rockets and bombs.

The British Air Marshal, Earl of Bandon, told reporters yesterday that the American Air Force in south Germany "has had atom bombs and atom bomb carriers for some time."

This appeared to be the first public admission by an Allied leader that A-weapons were in Germany.

Rebel Leaders Hold Meeting In Jakarta

JAKARTA (AP)—Rebel military leaders from throughout Indonesia met today in Jakarta in the backslapping-handshaking atmosphere of a college reunion.

President Sukarno in a tense broadcast last night said the revolt across the widespread island republic had brought the nation to the point of life and death.

Today the leaders of that revolt talked and joked at great length in the capital on their first meeting since they defied Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo.

The Premier and his Cabinet quit yesterday, finally, bowing to demands that began in December and spread throughout the island republic. The rebels pledged their allegiance to Sukarno—the hero of Indonesia's revolution against the Dutch—but demanded a new government which would let them keep most of the proceeds from their exports to develop their own islands.

The crisis was worsened by Sukarno's plan to set up an all-powerful "advisory" council headed by himself and including the Communists. Leaders in the outlying islands and the powerful army chief of staff, Maj. Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, were unanimously opposed to a government including the Reds.

Faced with the disintegration of the republic he launched in 1945, Sukarno capitulated. He finally forced Sastroamidjojo's resignation—which most parties in the government had demanded since January—and officially turned the local governments over to the military leaders who had rebelled since December. Then he summoned the local military chiefs to Jakarta to make peace.

Sunday School Lesson Notes:

The statement in Matthew 7:29, and in Mark 1:22 that Jesus taught
"as one having authority, and not as the scribes," would be a strange one if it were not true.

There is irony in it, also. The scribes were supposed to be the authoritative teachers, whereas Jesus, as He appeared in Galilee and Judea, began His ministry as an individual, seeking no external authority, but relying only in the truth in His words and deeds, and the fact that He was doing the will of His Father in Heaven.

It is strange that this phase of the life, teaching and ministry of Jesus has had little, or no, recognition, or emulation, in the religious world.

Religion almost everywhere and not less in the professedly Christian organizationized aspects, has been based upon authority. The external authority and discipline that is essentially similar to the authority in the Jewish time of Jesus, which He disregarded, insofar as authority for His own mission was concerned.

The fact that Jesus acted without any such external authority brought quick challenge. Jesus was immediately asked, by the chief priests and elders, "By what authority dost thou these things?
And who gave thee this authority?"

That incident and the reply of Jesus (Matthew 21:23-27) ought to have warned wide and sincere religious leaders against re-enacting it, but it has been re-enacted again and again.

Some years ago a professor in my own college was ousted from his position by the attacks of typical authoritarian officials, though he was admittedly a man of gentle Christian life, whose approximate views on the matters at issue are today widely held even in the very circles to which he belonged.

For myself, I have been an independent (though certainly not an isolationalist) in religion, and this attitude, I realize is subject to much criticism.

But the question of religious authority, its nature and its exercise, is one of the most vital confronting the religious world today.

I venture to suggest that questions regarding the nature and exercise of religious freedom ought to be resolved with clearer reference to the authority that Jesus exercised.

The trend in religion today seems to me to be largely official and bureaucratic, toward closer concentrations of discipline and authority.

But I anticipate a strong reaction, though it may be late in coming, of individuals standing up for their convictions of truth and duty, much as Jesus stood in relation to those who would have denied Him freedom to express the truth that He said would make men free.

"The truth shall make you free."

Twelve Years In India

Missionary Speaking Here Has Interesting Background

The Rev. Robert M. Marble, India missionary who will speak at the Wesley Methodist Church and the First Methodist Church Sunday morning and evening, has an interesting background.

Although he was born in Conway, Ark., he spent most of his early life in Neosho, Mo., finishing high school there in 1933. He received a bachelor of arts degree from Central College, Fayette, in 1938, and a bachelor of divinity degree from Yale University Divinity School in 1942.

During the next two years, he was associate pastor of the First Methodist Church in Joplin. In 1944 too, he was married to Martha Prescott, of Salisbury. She had at that time also received her bachelor of arts degree from Central College and a master's degree in religious education from Scarritt College in Nashville, Tenn. She had served as deaconess under the Women's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church as a rural home missionary.

The Marbles went to India in

Rev. Robert Marble

1945. Since that time, Rev. Marble has been stationed in Bahrar, with the following responsibilities:

Evangelistic: Village preaching and a term of five years as district superintendent of the Methodist Church.

Educational: Manager of the Boys Hostel in connection with the Bahrar School. Two years as principal and manager of the school.

Agricultural: Experiments in improved methods of growing rice. Compost gardening.

Extension: Village uplift and rural extension projects in the area.

Bahrar is in the central part of India, 32 miles from the narrow gauge railway, among the jungles and hills which are the home of the aboriginal tribal people called the Gonds. Though the tribal customs and animistic religion of the Gonds persist, they have been strongly influenced by the Hindu culture in the midst of which they find themselves.

Where Blame Doesn't Belong

Not in a long time has there been so much grass roots concern over the federal budget. As now proposed, this peace time budget is $71.8 billion.

Judging from hand written letters from back home and receipt of shirts off constituents' backs, Congressmen are sensing an atmosphere of restlessness among the people who want means found for budget-cutting. This subject is causing almost as much stir as the current Congressional investigation of the Teamster's Union.

Public interest in checking loose governmental spending may be a healthy gesture which will also encourage better understanding of the unhealthy inflationary processes at work in our country.

We read a lot about "strikes" here and "strikes" there. Many are referred to as "wildcat." Most are just tame cats adding to the inflationary spiral of increased wage demands granted by employers and passed along to customers.

So now we hear talks about the customers going on strike — a "Buyers' Strike." This is indeed disturbing but not as imminent as some would believe by the talk going around, although there is a lot of grumbling.

"Sales of some kinds of goods are slowing," according to an article in the U. S. News & World Report. "Merchants are encountering resentment from their customers against some of the high prices."

That may be so because it is human nature and inevitable to gripe about living costs no matter who is responsible for them. When consumer resentment over inflation flared shortly after World War II, merchants bore the brunt of the attack. This attitude in the vast majority of cases, amounts to placing the blame where it does not belong.

Merchants are not responsible for higher prices, now or in the past, and the profit figures prove it. Big food stores, for instance, often earn only a cent of profit on each dollar of sales, a profit so small we'd never know the difference if it didn't exist at all. Other kinds of stores commonly earn only a few cents of any sales dollar. All the rest goes to buy supplies, pay wages, rents, taxes, and to meet other unavoidable expense.

Wages have been going up, in some cases sharply, and so have other costs borne by business on both the manufacturing and retailing level. Merchants have no choice — the increases must be passed along to the consumer.

When the consumer starts to get interested in what's happening to him at the federal budget level, maybe he'll begin to realize he has a large part in controlling the inflation which is hurting him.

And that public interest will have to be more pronounced than mere dramatization of discontent over the federal budget by Centralia Missourians sending the shirts off their backs to the budget bureau in Washington.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Backstage Pledges Spurred Withdrawal

WASHINGTON—The public doesn't know it, but Israel can cite the 100 per cent support of American diplomats in private talks against the move of Col. Nasser to set up civilian administration in the Gaza Strip.

What the public doesn't know is that the statement by the Israeli Foreign Minister Mrs. Golda Meir in the UN, setting forth the conditions under which Israel would withdraw from Gaza and Aqaba, was okayed personally and agreed to by John Foster Dulles. It was also read by the French and by various State Department officials. They even made some changes in the statement.

After accepting these changes, Mrs. Meir stated that Israel makes its announcement of withdrawal "on the following assumptions:

"That on its withdrawal the United Nations force will be deployed in Gaza, and that the take-over of Gaza from the military and civilian control of Israel will be exclusively by the United Nations emergency force."

There were other safeguarding "assumptions," all relying on the UN and all approved in advance by the United States.

Immediately after Mrs. Meir's statement, and despite the advance approval, Ambassador Cabot Lodge rose, in an effort to appease the Arabs, to express some reservations. However, Israel thought she had a firm commitment and never would have withdrawn without the solemn word of John Foster Dulles, who purported to represent the United States.

Crossing Councilman?

These are days when witnesses before the Senate Rackets Committee are rushing to take lie detector tests. Mr. Stanley Earl, city councilman of Portland, Ore., has not volunteered to take such a test, but some of the testimony of the convicted dope peddler, "Big Jim" Elkins, has seemed so fishy that my associate Jack Anderson called the city councilman in order to learn the truth about his alleged role as a champion of clean government.

Mr. Anderson's cross-examination was not a lie detector test, but the results might help the public decide whether the city councilman is an honest crusader against corruption.

Reached at his hotel in Washington, Councilman Earl admitted he had once been a bouncer for Big Jim Elkins and his brother. But he didn't know anything about having written a letter to the Arizona parole board asking that Elkins be pardoned.

Anderson then read him his letter.

"That letter was never presented before the parole board," the city councilman alibied. "I canceled it."

"How did you cancel it?" The councilman couldn't seem to explain. The letter is on file with the parole board.

"Didn't you at one time make a motion in the Portland City Council to license pinball machines?"

The councilman started to answer in the negative.

Refreshed His Memory

"Remember, your actions as a city councilman are a matter of record," Anderson reminded him.

"Wait a minute and I'll look at the record," the councilman replied. Just what kind of record he had in his hotel room in Washington was not explained, but in a minute or two he replied:

"Yes, I spoke out for them." He explained he had introduced two resolutions for pinball machines.

"Why did you once change your mind about pinball machines after you had been for them, and suddenly start denouncing them?" Anderson asked.

The question was prompted by reports that the Teamsters had begun to move in on the pinball machines in a move to squeeze out Earl's friend, Big Jim Elkins. Following this, Big Jim disposed of his pinball machines; following which, also, Councilman Earl with sudden righteousness began to attack pinballs as a vicious gambling device.

Asked about this change of mind, the councilman didn't answer. He started giving facetious answers instead.

"Elkins gave me a great big chunk," he said. "I chewed on it and chewed on it until it came out baloney."

Then Earl began challenging Anderson's identity.

"I don't believe you are Jack Anderson," he said.

The councilman's conversation became so ludicrous that Anderson terminated the interview.

Senate Counsel Bob Kennedy was apprised of the above conversation, but one day later Kennedy put Earl on the witness stand as an advocate of clean government in Portland.

Ungrateful Republic

Chip Bohlen, brilliant long-time ambassador to Moscow, is a career diplomat who doesn't have a penny outside his State Department salary. Unlike politically appointed ambassadors who contribute heavily to the party, and unlike many career diplomats who have private incomes, Bohlen operates strictly on brains.

He has been the chief State Department adviser on Russia for many years, speaks Russian fluently, has been able to call the turn on Russian events with amazing accuracy. He has also been frank—sometimes too frank for his own good. When Secretary of State Dulles has been wrong, he hasn't hesitated to say so. There's been a lot of speculation in the ranks of diplomacy, therefore, as to whether Bohlen would get another ambassadorial job.

This undoubtedly was in the minds of guests at a small Washington dinner party honoring Bohlen with ex-Secretary of State Dean Acheson was called upon to toast the homecoming ambassador.

"I hope," said Acheson, concluding his toast, "that the republic will be grateful."

"The French have said this before, as they have said most things," replied Bohlen, returning the toast, "but when a republic becomes grateful, it ceases to be a republic."

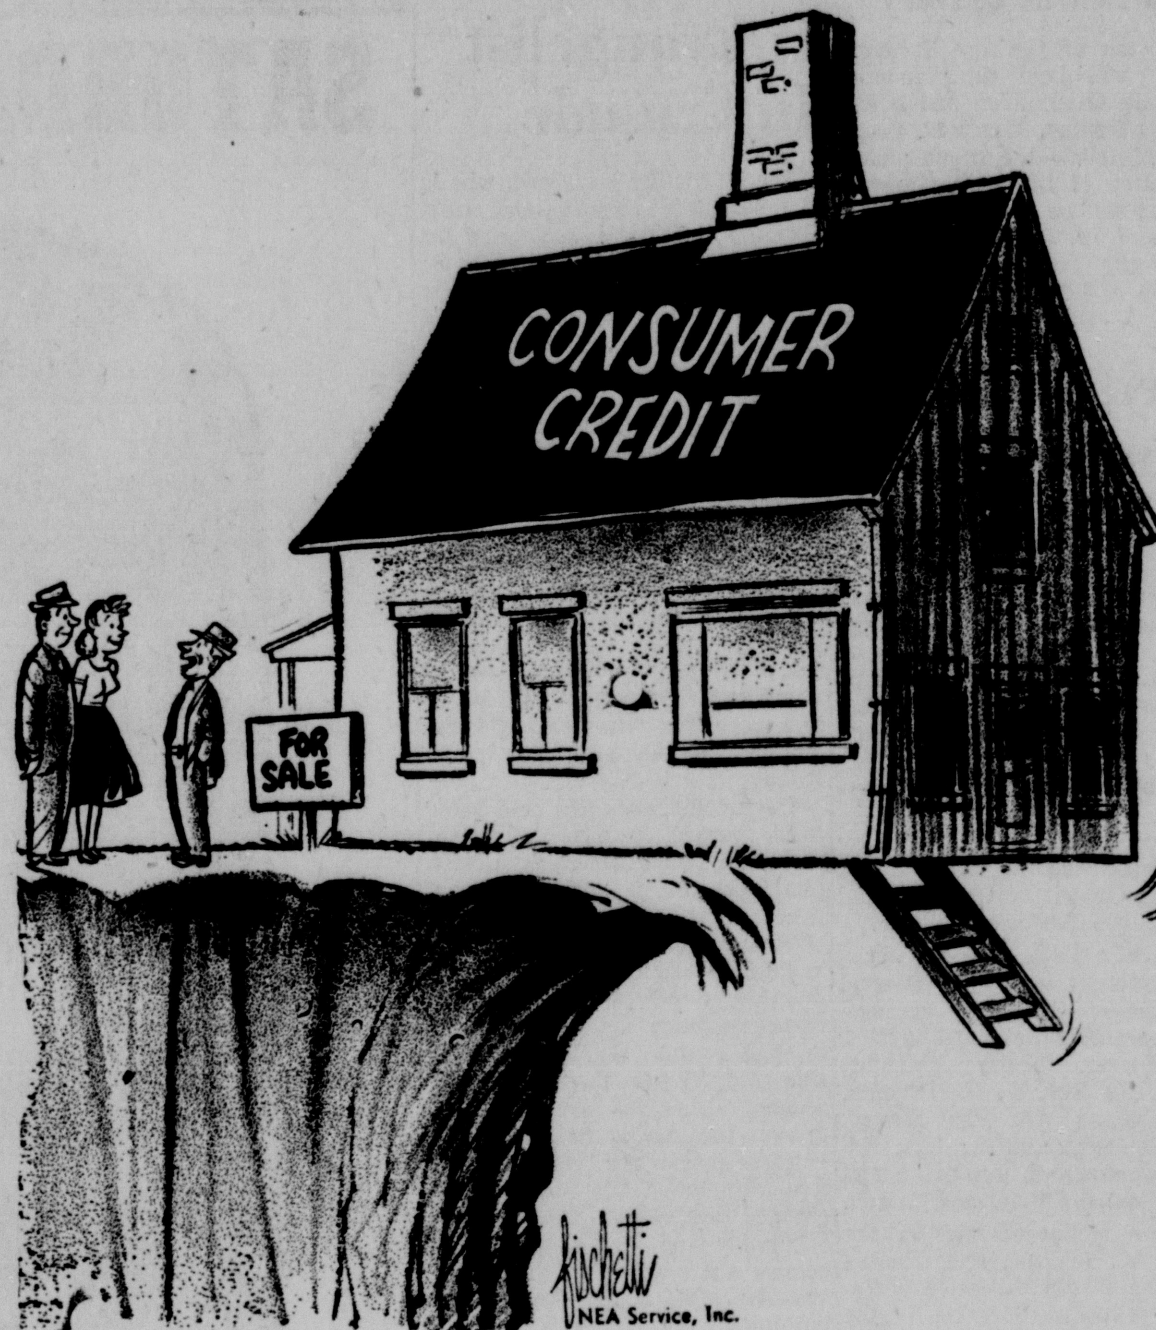

Note—Bohlen is now to become ambassador to the Philippines, which, after a couple more years of service, will permit him to retire on an ambassadorial pension.

"Oh Yes, It Has an Enormous Celler"

The World Today

Ike Has Improved at News Conferences

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—After 104 presidential news conferences, President Eisenhower, who was awkward and stumbling in his early meeting with the press, has developed ease, speed and sureness.

He's still long-winded. He still manages to scramble his sentences at times. He still goes in for pious platitudes and ringing generalities that come close to banality.

But in the perilous quicksands of these conferences he has done an excellent job of staying clear of careless or impulsive answers that would embarrass him or the government or cause needless trouble.

The one quality which has shone through all his conferences is restraint in talking of people, problems or events. This restraint may turn out to have been his greatest contribution to the presidency and history.

These conferences have given him a priceless chance to create in the minds of the people an impression of him as a reasonable, patient, decent man of good will. And, judging from his great popularity, he has succeeded.

Through all his conferences he has so consistently followed three policies that they look less like a state of mind than the result of deliberate decisions made before he ever held his first White House news conference Feb. 17, 1953.

These three policies are: he almost never says "no comment" to a question; he has carefully refrained from personal attacks on others; and he never acts like a boss.

Presidents Roosevelt and Truman used the "no comment" device to brush aside what they wouldn't or couldn't answer. Not Eisenhower. He persists in giving answers even when his only answer is that he has none.

Often, even when he gets wound up, his answers aren't really answers. Many times, because of this rambling which often gives the appearance of avoiding a direct answer, he'd be just as enlightening by saying "no comment."

By steering clear of personal attacks on others Eisenhower has given his foes and critics a minimum excuse for attacking him. This has the added effect of saving the presidency from mudslinging.

The results he gets from following this course — meaning his amazing continued popularity — would indicate he's a far better politician, although not necessarily a better president, than Truman.

He has been president through treacherous times abroad and a period of national sickness over communism at home. A news conference is full of jeopardy for a president who gets overheated and shoots from the hip.

Never has Eisenhower slipped into using an inflammatory, defiant, domineering or careless word that could cause a crisis abroad or a tempest at home. This is a tribute to his restraint and his high sense of responsibility.

It was particularly useful right after he became president when the country was sick in its division over the menace, or alleged menace, of communism at home. H led the country out of that morass by patience and reasonableness.

There are those who criticize him for not having taken an open stand against Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), then the No. 1 Red-hunter. But his admirers can point out that McCarthy and McCarthyism have faded into the background.

At his conferences his very restraint gives him the appearance of a man who believes that if people are allowed to cool off they will, and that time is a marvelous healer of open wounds.

But coupled with this is the question of his leadership. He was told at his Nov. 15, 1956, conference that he was being criticized for lack of leadership.

It was then he plainly revealed his philosophy of running the government and his concept of leadership by saying: "I am not the desk-pounding type . . . I would rather persuade a man to go along."

The Mature Parent—

You Can't Keep On Indulging Convalescing Child Forever

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence
During Cubby's convalescence from measles, his mother read him to sleep every night.

It was a pleasure. Cubby had been quite ill. He'd lost weight. She was so grateful to him for riding himself of measles that she was only too glad to reread him "The Wizard of Oz."

Indeed the first day he ate all his lamb chop, she was so grateful that she bought "The Tin Woodman of Oz" — and began to read him that.

But enough was enough.

One night after reading him three chapters from "The Tin Woodman," she had to say, "No—that's all. I can't read any more now. I have to go downstairs and get my dishes done."

With bitter accusation, Cubby corrected her. "You don't have to go," he said. "You just WANT to go!"

After a moment, she leaned down and kissed him. "Yes, that is true," she told him. "You are right. I just don't have to go downstairs—I want to. I want to get my work done. I want to be with Daddy and read a book of my own. So that's what I'm going to do. Good night, darling."

After a child's illness, there always comes the moment when we want to be done with the intense closeness his weakness has developed between us.

If we love him, we'll freely admit the wish.

He will protest. He'll imagine that he wants us to continue serving his every want. He'll believe that he wants to perpetuate the invalid's special privileges and retain his use of our eyes, our limbs, our energies.

But this is only skin-deep truth. The deep truth is that Cubby's retreating health wants him to withdraw its dependence on ours. When we declare our own healthy wish to resume our own life again, our child is deeply invigorated. Underneath his apparent displeasure is the feeling, "O.K. If she wants to do things without me again, I can do them myself without her!"

Sometimes mothers ignore their own wholesome resistance to the nurse's let-me-do-everything-for-you role. They go on climbing stairs and carrying trays, refusing to recognize their irritation at their convalescent's over-demandingness. Yet their irritation is their own knowledge that the time for indulging it is past.

Navy Airship To End Record Flight Tonight

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—The Navy blimp ZPG-2 will end a record-breaking 11-day romp through the skies tonight with her "well done" already inscribed on the 343-foot airship's log.

The blimp left Weymouth Naval Air Station, Mass., at 6:32 p.m. March 4. She was due to touch at Key West Naval Air Station at 6:30 tonight. More than 7,000 miles of territory had passed beneath her by yesterday, eclipsing a 1929 mark of 6,900 miles set by the German Graf Zeppelin.

Earlier, the blimp also had broken the old record of 200 hours 12 minutes for nonrefueled flight.

The blimp's crew got this radio message from Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, as their craft floated over Florida: "Heartiest congratulations on establishing a new world endurance record for airships. Your untiring efforts and devotion are most commendable. This flight . . . is another achievement which serves to demonstrate the continuing search for technological advantages by the U.S. Navy. Well done."

Balancing Contamination

Source For Rationing Is Medical Use Of Radiation

By Joseph A. Dear
Of Our Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON—Precious little has been heard about H-bomb testing since the campaign.

But the problem of preventing atmospheric contamination by radioactive material is still with us. One eminent authority in the field of radiology now says that Democratic candidate Adlai Stevenson approached the problem from the wrong direction.

There is an area where progress must be made, says this authority. Banning H-bomb tests wouldn't help much. What would help, though, is more cooperation and thought by medical men and radiologists.

Scientists have established a radiation safety level for the entire population. If the entire population is continuously exposed to excessive radiation the consequences could be catastrophic. At present, half the safe level has been pre-empted for the medical use of radiation.

This is the area in which savings can be made. Radiologists, doctors, dentists, X-ray technicians and the like could easily cut their patient exposure levels substantially. This would be best for the patients and for the population.

If the age of atomic plenty is to become a reality, man will have to ration radiation carefully. Everyone will have to cooperate.

Jules Verne, according to the UNESCO index, was the top non-Russian writer in the Soviet Union in 1955.

Maybe it was reading Verne that prompted the Soviet to make those fanciful claims for Russian inventors. You'll remember that Russia credits its own with almost every invention from the wheel to the light bulb.

United States Information Service, which is the government outfit charged with telling the American story overseas, is devoting at least part of its budget to telling its own story to American reporters in Washington.

USIS recently distributed to American reporters here a booklet consisting of stories other reporters had written about USIS personnel abroad.

It looks like somebody forgot the agency's function.

The General Accounting Office, an arm of Congress, has issued a report criticizing the Atomic Energy Commission's contract with the Yankee Atomic Electric Co.

Yankee is wholly owned by 12 New England companies. GAO noted that the utility companies had not executed binding agreements with Yankee, though that is the outfit with which AEC has its contract. Because Yankee had no firm agreements with its parents companies, GAO said, it was not financially competent.

Senator Clinton Anderson (D-N.M.), vice chairman of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, says the British already are ahead of the United States from the viewpoint of putting atomic produced kilowatts on the line.

Anderson notes that Japan, a power-poor nation which is vitally interested in atomic reactors, prefers the British built apparatus because "they were further along than we."

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

When one flies a great distance, he frequently rises above the thick clouds which completely shut off all view of the earth. The sun may be shining above the clouds, but when the descent begins, the plane enters the fog. Nothing can be seen. The pilot must depend on instruments, on radio beams, and radar control. Finally one lands below the seemingly impenetrable mist.

Jesus carried His congregations above the clouds of human confusion and hardship which seemed to envelop the world of His day. As He approached His landing for His last week on earth, even His friends were lost in the fog. They could not follow the beam that Jesus followed.

We, too, become befogged sometimes in our way through life. However, we can be certain that we shall make our journey safely if we have Jesus for our pilot.

Three Are Top Rated

5 NL Southpaws Remember Yesterday's Games Too Well

The Associated Press
Five National League southpaws would just as soon forget about yesterday.

Three of them—Johnny Antonelli of the Giants, Johnny Podres of the Dodgers and Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell—are among the top-rated in the league.

Veteran Paul Minner is trying to make the grade with the Pirates after an accident apparently ended his career, and the Cubs' pint-sized Jackie Collum is with his third different club in as many seasons.

Antonelli, a 20-game winner in 1956, made his first spring appearance as the Giants bowed to Baltimore 7-6. He was the victim of a five-run third frame. He allowed three hits—including a home run by Gus Triandos — and walked four.

Podres, who beat the Yankees in the seventh game of the 1955 World Series, was shelled for eight runs in fourth inning by Milwaukee. He gave up a pinch grand slam homer by Andy Pafko and a three-run home run by Jim Pindleton.

Podres was the losing pitcher as Milwaukee won 12-9. In two innings he yielded five hits and issued three bases on balls.

Once again Mizell's wildness led to his downfall. Boston scored all four runs off him in the first inning to blank St. Louis 4-0. The big speed-baller, who had a 14-14 record last season, walked four men and failed to get a batter out. He gave up an infield hit, but only two runs were earned due to Ken Boyer's error.

Minner fractured his neck in mid-June when he slipped in the shower of his hotel room. The Cubs released him at the end of the season. The Pirates signed him as a free agent and agreed to give him a tryout, although he was not placed on their roster.

In his spring debut, Cincinnati sent five runs across the plate in the first inning before he could retire a batter. They went on to hand Pittsburgh its first setback after five exhibition victories 7-4.

Collum played with Cincinnati in 1955 and was traded to the Cards, who then dealt him to Chicago after the 1956 season. The 5-8 lefty pitched three innings of relief in the Cubs' 9-8 defeat at the hands of Cleveland in 13 innings. Taking over in the fourth inning, he was touched for five runs, allowing at least one run in each of the frames.

Elsewhere: Jim Rivera and Jim Landis each slammed a pair of homers as the White Sox trimmed the Senators 12-2. . . . Gill McDougald's triple and Tony Kubek's single gave the Yanks a 3-2 triumph over the Tigers in 10 innings; and Bobby Morgan's homer—his second of the game—in the ninth inning enabled the Phils to edge Kansas City 7-6.

Demaret Trails Young Golfers In Tournament

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Aging, ageless Jimmy Demaret stepped up to his ball, stroked it firmly and gave a little leap of joy as it fell into the cup for an eagle.

Still sporting the broad smile and the brightly colored golfing garb that have been Demaret trademarks for years, he then turned in his third-round score in the St. Petersburg Open—a 67.

That left the 46-year-old Texan, now playing out of Kiamasha Lake, N. Y., only one stroke off the pace starting today's second round in the $12,500, 72-hole event.

Two lads young enough to be Demaret's sons were out front with 5-under-par 66s—Gene Littler, 26, Singing Hills, Calif., and Bill Casper Jr., 25, Bonita, Calif.

Demaret's first victories in the Masters have been matched only by Sam Snead.

Tied with Demaret behind Littler and Casper were Jackie Burke Jr., Kiamasha Lake, and Lionel Hebert, Lafayette, La. Hebert was runner-up here last year, losing to Mike Fetchick, Mahopac, N. Y., in a playoff.

Fetchick started the second round tied with 12 others at 70.

Four golfers were deadlocked at 68—Don Addington, Tecumseh, Mich.; Pete Cooper, Lakeland, Fla.; Bob Inman, Detroit; and George Bayer, Los Angeles.

The 69 shooters included Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, Pa., and Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa.

Mizell's Wildness Alarms Cardinals; Pulled Out of Game

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—The wildness of Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, their biggest winner last year, is alarming the St. Louis Cardinals.

Manager Fred Hutchinson had hoped to use the tall lefthander four innings against the Boston Red Sox yesterday but finally pulled him out with the bases loaded, three runs in and none out in the first inning.

Mizell now has walked eight men and given up five hits and 10 runs in just three innings of Grapefruit League pitching. All the runs were charged to Mizell in Boston's 4-0 victory as the Redbirds collected only three hits off three Boston pitchers.

Hutchinson and General Manager Frank Lane are inclined to blame Mizell's wildness on winter inactivity and are becoming impatient.

West Virginia's football schedule for 1957 shows four Southern Conference, four eastern and two Atlantic Coast Conference opponents. Boston U., Virginia Tech, Virginia and Wake Forest will be new.

The Chicago Cubs signed Gerald Kindall, a Minnesota infielder, to a bonus following the NCAA tournament in Omaha. Kindall will be graduated in 1957.

Gilly Cadilli, Ike Chestnut Fight Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Having fought almost to a draw the first time, featherweight contenders Gilly Cadilli and Ike Chestnut are rated even for their return bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Cadilli, a 25-year-old ex-GI from Los Angeles, finished strong to nose out the 26-year-old New Yorker by one point at Houston, Tex., last Oct. 30.

"That was a big point for me," said Cadilli. "I wasn't going too good and was even thinking of quitting the ring. The fight with Chestnut was the test. It was one of the toughest of my career. He hit me with a hook in the first round and buckled my knees but I fought it off and won. That fight showed I still belonged with the leading featherweights."

"In my next fight, I beat Miguel Berrios. If I beat Chestnut again maybe they'll let me in the elimination tournament. After all, I beat Chestnut and Berrios and Chestnut stopped Carmelo Costa."

Berrios and Costa, two of the four 126-pounders selected for the tournament to succeed retired Sandy Saddler, meet at the Garden next Friday. The other two are France's Kerif Hamia and Nigeria's Hogan (Kid) Basse.

Chestnut, of course, is anxious for revenge. He figures that if he can even the score with Cadilli he might stand a chance of getting one of the first cracks at the new champion.

Both of the little men are speed merchants and fine boxers. Neither hits too hard. Cadilli's record is 27-8-3, including nine knockouts. Chestnut's record is 23-8-3 with only three kayos.

NBC will broadcast and telecast at 10 p.m., EST.

Paul Arizin Takes Cage Scoring Honors Back to Philadelphia

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul Arizin, the old Villanova star who led the National Basketball Association in scoring in 1952, brought the individual point collecting honors back to Philadelphia this season.

Final figures released today for the regular season which ended Wednesday showed that Arizin scored 1,817 points for an average of 25.6 points per game. In 1952, as a second year man, Arizin tallied 1,674 points for an average of 25.4 as he dethroned George Mikan of Minneapolis — leader three seasons in a row.

Arizin finished 62 points ahead of Bob Pettit of St. Louis, who had 1,849 a year ago for a 25.7 average.

Clyde Lovellette, former Kansas star now with Minneapolis finished sixth in scoring with 1,434 points and a 20.8 average.

Is Among Best NAIA Four

Eastern Illinois College Recovers From Last Place

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Eastern Illinois College, which finished in a tie for last place in its conference, stood today among the best four teams of the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association (NAIA) basketball tournament.

Eastern's crew of deadly accurate long shot artists trimmed three - time tournament champion Hamline University of St. Paul 88-83 in last night's quarterfinals to gain a berth in semifinals tonight.

Ironically, fourth - seeded Western Illinois, champion of the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in which Eastern Illinois was last, will sit out the rest of the tournament.

Another unseeded entry, Tennessee State, edged Western Illinois 90-88 in the quarterfinals.

In other quarterfinal games, seventh seeded Southeastern Oklahoma State's Jim Spivey continued his brilliant play to lead his team to 69-65 victory over second - seeded Youngstown (Ohio) University, and favored Pacific Lutheran easily defeated Texas Southern 91-72.

Pacific Lutheran meets Tennessee State in the first semifinal game in Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium tonight. Eastern Illinois and Southeastern Oklahoma meet in the second game.

Of all the 32 teams entered in this big tournament for small colleges, Eastern Illinois was the most undistinguished. The team ended the regular season with a 4-7 league record and an 11-11 mark for all games.

Western Illinois was tagged as the district 20 representative until the NAIA invited the champions to play as an at-large entry.

Eastern Illinois then got into the district playoffs through a combination of circumstances too complex to bear repeating. The team promptly won the playoff, and now is working on a 5-game winning streak.

In the NAIA competition so far, Eastern also has knocked over Highland (N. M.) University and Villa Madonna College of Kentucky. The 110 points it scored against Villa Madonna is the highest score posted during the tournament this year.

Eastern Illinois uses a novel attack which forces its players to shoot from the outside. Against Villa Madonna, the team scored on only five layups and two tip-ins.

Southeastern Oklahoma's Spivey, the tourney's outstanding player so far, scored 31 points last night to run his 3-game total to 116. Spivey again dominated play off the backboards.

Offense or Defense Is Question in Choice Of Athletics Players

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Offense or defense — that's the choice Manager Lou Boudreau is apparently considering as nine candidates battle for starting assignments in the Kansas City outfield.

Rookie Leroy Schmidt is almost certain to be sent out on option. The lefthanded swinger still needs experience.

The other candidates all have a chance to win a permanent job although Irv Noren is expected to be used principally as a punch hitter unless his knee trouble clears up.

Bob Cerv and Harry Simpson are the most likely to start. Both are long ball hitters. Simpson was the leading A's slugger last year with 21 home runs and 105 RBIs.

If Boudreau goes all out for power it could be Lou Skizas, Gus Zernial and Simpson. If he chooses a defensive outfield it apparently would be Cerv, Jim Pisoni and Simpson.

The other candidates are Dave Melton and Johnny Groth. Melton hasn't had a chance to prove himself and Groth is given little chance to win a starting berth.

Shortest priced winner in the 45-year history of Laurel was Alsab. The colt paid $2.20 for $2 in 1941.

May Reverse Score Trend In the NCAA

The Associated Press
Virtually all the scoring records for the NCAA Basketball Tournament were set in the past three years, but the big question as 16 NCAA contenders moved into four regional tournament tonight was whether this scoring trend might be reversed.

There have been a couple of signs. The San Francisco Dons, 1955-56 champions, got their best results by playing solid defensive basketball and holding their shots until they counted. Two of this year's first-round winners, Canisius and Idaho State, did virtually the same thing as they beat West Virginia and Hardin-Simmons with scores in the 60's.

Canisius likely will try to keep control when it meets unbeaten North Carolina tonight, rather than take chances on letting Len Rosenbluth and his mates get their shots. Some of the others may use similar tactics if they decide it's futile to run against such teams as Kansas, Kentucky, St. Louis and Notre Dame.

The results could be just the opposite, since all 16 teams have shown that on occasion they can collect large gobbs of points.

Meanwhile, in the NCAA Small College Tournament at Evansville, Ind., Kentucky Wesleyan and Wheaton gained the finals to be played tonight. Kentucky Wesleyan blasted Mt. St. Mary's (Md.) 99-81, coming from behind with 28 points in the first nine minutes of the second half. Wheaton led all the way to beat Los Angeles State 71-53.

In the NAIA Tournament at Kansas City, top-seeded Pacific Lutheran meets Tennessee State and Eastern Illinois plays Southeastern Oklahoma. The finals will be Saturday night.

Pacific Lutheran eliminated Texas Southern 91-72, Tennessee State went ahead in the final minutes to down Western Illinois 90-88, Eastern Illinois ousted Hamline, three-time champion, 88-83, and Southeastern Oklahoma took care of second-seeded Youngstown 69-65.

Here's the lineup for the four regional major college NCAA playoffs tonight that will qualify four teams for the final rounds at Kansas City March 22-23.

At Philadelphia, North Carolina, No. 1 in the nation, opposes Canisius, while Syracuse plays Lafayette.

At Lexington, Ky., Kentucky faces Pittsburgh and Michigan State meets Notre Dame. Pitt edged Morehead (Ky.) 86-85 in the opening round and Notre Dame routed Miami (Ohio) 89-77.

At Dallas, Kansas plays Southern Methodist and Oklahoma City meets St. Louis.

At Corvallis, Ore., San Francisco opens its title defense against Idaho State and California meets Brigham Young.

Amateur Holds One Stroke Lead in 18th Women's Tournament

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Ann Quast, 19-year-old amateur from Seattle, Wash., who set the 18th Women's Titleholders Golf Tournament on its ear with a sterling first round, 72, took her one-stroke lead into battle today against a "cave of jitters" and a field of 48 outstanding professionals and amateurs.

The pert, 5-foot-7 entry toured the 6,290 - yard Augusta Country Club course in men's par 36-36-72 yesterday. Women's par is 75. One stroke behind in second place was Mickey Wright, 22-year old professional from San Diego, Calif., who had a 36-37-73.

Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., Marlene Bauer Hage of Delray Beach, Fla., and Wiffi Smith of St. Clair, Mich., got in with 74s.

Moberly Junior College Wins Fifth Regional Cage Championship

MOBERLY (AP)—Moberly whipped Highland, Kan., 91-47 last night in the finals of the Region 16 junior college basketball tournament and will go on to the national tourney at Hutchinson, Kan., next week.

It was the fifth regional title in a row for Moberly, which is unbeaten in junior college ranks this year and has a season record of 27-3.

Southwest Baptist defeated Hannibal - LaGrange 95-58 for third place.

Four Top Cage Teams to Meet In NCAA Games

DALLAS (AP)—Four members of the top ten of college basketball—Kansas, Southern Methodist, Oklahoma City and St. Louis—clash here tonight in the opening round of the Western Regional NCAA tournament.

Oklahoma City (18-8), ranked No. 9, and St. Louis (19-7), rated No. 10, meet in the first game at 7:30 p.m. (CST).

Kansas (21-2), ranked No. 2 in the nation, and Southern Methodist (21-3) the No. 4 team, clash at 9:30 p.m.

The winners will meet tomorrow night for the championship. The losers decide third place.

Kansas, which once was National Champion and is considered by many the best bet for the title this year, will be the favorite because of Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, the 7-foot All-American.

Chamberlain leads a team that averages 6 feet 4.5 inches in height against a Southern Methodist outfit that's the shortest quintet in the tournament but makes up with speed and finesse. The Methodists, averaging 6 feet 2.8 inches, are headed by Jim Krebs is the only big man on the team, soaring to 6 feet 8.

Oklahoma City has the tallest outfit—a 6 foot 3.2 inches aggregation sparked by Hub Reed, a 6-foot-10 star who has flipped in 600 points this season. Only Chamberlain has outscored him. Wilt has poked 679 points through the meshes.

St. Louis, led by Hal Alcorn, averages 6 feet 4.2.

At Corvallis, Ore., San Francisco opens its title defense against Idaho State and California meets Brigham Young.

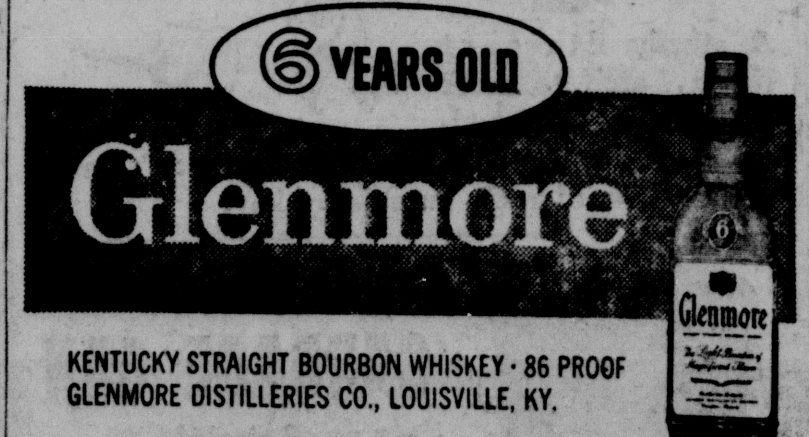

Hubbard, Optimists Win in Cage Tourney; Warsaw Gets Forfeit

The first round of the Hubbard grade school cage tourney was played Thursday night with the first game a forfeit by Boonville to Warsaw. In the second game Hubbard defeated Fulton by a score of 63 to 44. The Sedalia Optimists downed Sacred Heart by a score of 27 to 10.

In the second round play to start at 8 o'clock tonight, Warsaw will meet Hubbard and Sacred Heart will meet Lincoln.

Two members of the New York Football Giants this year will mark their ninth season in pro football. They are Charley Conerly and Emlien Tunnell.

Dies of Gun Shot Wounds

TEL AVIV (AP)—Rudolf Kastner, controversial Hungarian Jewish leader in World War II, died today of an assassin's bullets.

Kastner was found bleeding profusely from three chest wounds in a northern Tel Aviv street early March 4. He was taken to a hospital but his condition grew progressively worse.

A number of persons were rounded up after the shooting and police said two young men among those detained would be charged with murder.

Kastner had been editor of the Hungarian language newspaper Uj Kelet in Tel Aviv and was believed returning home when attacked.

Kastner headed a Budapest rescue committee of Hungarian Jews during the Nazi occupation of Hungary in 1944. After the war he was accused of being a stooge for the Nazis, and in June 1955 a Jerusalem district court found in effect that he had been a quisling.

The court's decision came after a yearlong libel trial of Malkiel

Greenwald, who had charged Kastner collaborated with the Nazis and prepared the ground for mass murder of Hungarian Jewry.

Greenwald was exonerated of libel except on his charge that Kastner had "shared loot" with the Nazis. The court found that count was not substantiated and fined Greenwald one Israeli pound (56 cents).

The Israeli state attorney general appealed the judgment and the case is still pending before Israel's Supreme Court.

Kastner had maintained his innocence and vowed he would do everything possible to clear his name.

The District Court's judgement said Kastner had acted as a quisling, knowing that by his actions he was sacrificing a large number of Jews in order to save a small group of his friends and relatives.

Auto Workers Strike In California Plant

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Chrysler Corp. assembly plant in near-by Maywood was struck today in what a United Auto Workers spokesman said was a dispute over work quotas.

Some 1,200 swing shift workers walked off the job shortly after midnight. The plant employs more than 3,700.

A wildcat strike shut down production at the plant two days last week. The current strike, however, is authorized by Local 230 and has full support of the UAW international, a spokesman said.

St. Patrick's Statue Gets Painted Orange

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—Sure and St. Patrick himself won't be wearing the green on his day, Sunday. Someone, apparently an Orangeman from Northern Ireland, dumped orange paint over St. Patrick's statue in front of St. Michael's Hospital yesterday.

Said Capt. Charles Kelly of the police force: "A catastrophe."

Blizzards Whip Midwest Areas Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Blizzards whipped across northern Midwest areas today, isolating scores of communities, as other violent mid-March storms swept sections in the central part of the country.

Minnesota, Iowa, the Dakotas and Nebraska appeared the hardest hit by the late winter icy storms which erupted yesterday. At least six deaths were attributed to the blizzard conditions, four in Minnesota and two in Iowa. Rain, sleet and snow spread across wide areas.

Strong northerly winds whipped the heavy snow into huge drifts and visibility was cut to zero in some places. Wind gusts up to 70 m.p.h. lashed areas in Iowa and Minnesota yesterday as the storm rolled across the upper Mississippi Valley.

Travel was curtailed and in many places halted. Telephone and power service was disrupted and schools were closed. At least a dozen small towns in northwestern Iowa were isolated when communications were knocked out. Similar conditions were reported in other parts of the storm belt.

About 300 of the 500 persons attending a high school district basketball tournament at Rolfe, Iowa, were forced to spend the night in the school gymnasium because of snow-blocked and icy highways.

Snow measured up to 6 inches in sections of Minnesota and Iowa and blizzard conditions continued for parts of Minnesota and North Dakota.

As the storm headed into the upper Great Lakes region, cold air spread across most of the central part of the country. Temperatures were more than 30 degrees lower than 24 hours earlier in many places and were far below freezing in the storm zone.

Along the leading edge of the cold front, thunderstorms broke out yesterday from the Kentucky-Tennessee area northward to extreme Upper Michigan.

EOKA Offers Cease Fire To British

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Prospects for an end to guerrilla warfare on Cyprus appeared improved today after an EOKA cease-fire offer.

British Gov. Sir John Harding neither accepted nor rejected the proposal, which was hinged on the condition that the British release Archbishop Makarios from exile. But Harding said he would be the first to welcome any move toward a "genuine and permanent cessation of the present violence," and that he was certain Britain would display "no lack of imagination" in dealing with the situation.

Vias Markides, editor of the Greek Orthodox newspaper Ethnos and a leader of Cyprus' Greek community, hailed Harding's reply as encouraging. Hopes for a halt to the prolonged underground violence rose throughout the island.

Archbishop Makarios, leader of the Greek Orthodox Church on the British colonial island, was deported to the Seychelle Islands in the Indian Ocean last March on grounds he was directing the fight to end British rule and unite Cyprus with Greece. The dominant Greek Cypriot population insists Makarios is the only person with whom Britain can negotiate on Cyprus' future.

The cease-fire offer was made in leaflets scattered in Nicosia and signed "Digenis," leader of the EOKA underground organization.

Britain has offered Cyprus more self-government but has said violence must be ended before an agreement can be negotiated.

Senate Group In Closed Meet On Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate Judiciary subcommittee was called into closed session today to act on civil rights measures.

Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.), the chairman, said he was hopeful the subcommittee could agree on legislation to recommend to the full Judiciary Committee.

A House Judiciary subcommittee already has approved a bill patterned after administration recommendations. These call for creation of a bipartisan commission to study complaints of civil rights violations, for establishment of a civil rights division in the Justice Department, and for new powers for the attorney general to seek injunctions to enforce voting and other civil rights.

The full House Judiciary Committee yesterday approved several amendments, then quit work on the bill for the weekend.

Both factions in the House committee—Northern and Western opponents of a civil rights bill and Southern opponents—announced an agreement to stay in session Monday until a bill is completed and voted on.

From the Judiciary Committee, which is considered certain to approve the measure, it goes to the House Rules Committee. There, Southerners may stage another delaying action, but the Democratic leadership's reported goal of a House vote early in April appeared possible.

Sonic Boom May Have Caused Bees to Trap Two Women in House

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A concussion, apparently due to a jet military plane going through the sound barrier, caused the home of Mrs. Theresa Fiorentino to be covered by bees. She and a neighbor who was visiting her became prisoners in the house.

With the windows black with bees, Mrs. Fiorentino called police. By the time the police bee expert had arrived the bees had swarmed to a berry bush and it wasn't too much trouble capturing them.

The bee specialist, William J. Fox, said that the bees came from a hive in the hills and that the sonic boom apparently jarred the queen. When she took off her adherents followed.

Gets Congratulations On Its 39th Birthday From Hollywood Actor

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania state American Legion, celebrating its 39th birthday today, has received a letter of congratulation from Hollywood.

It reads: "Imagine your organization was formed when I was born and now we are celebrating our 39th birthday together. So, my sincere congratulations on all your good work and here's hoping your branch of the American Legion continues its excellent record for another 39 years."

The letter was from comedian Jack Benny, who has never gotten around to celebrating his 40th birthday.

Chimpanzee Lacks $150 for Her Dowry

BALTIMORE (AP)—Betsy, the Baltimore Zoo's artistic chimpanzee, needs only $150 to complete her dowry.

The now-famous 7-year-old finger-painting ape has collected $500 from her art so far. When she has collected enough to purchase a boy friend, zoo director Arthur Watson said he will take Betsy to New York for a series of meetings with eligible bachelor chimps.

Rancher Stays Put on Land US Claimed

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—A pioneer New Mexico stockman's home ranch was government property today—part of the Army's new McGregor missile firing range.

But whether hearty 82-year-old John Prather will move off peacefully by the March 30 deadline still is a question.

Yesterday he repeated he will "die at home."

His home "spread," started 50 years ago, lay along the east border of the range in south-central New Mexico. Inside the range is about 3,400 acres he owned outright and 20,000 acres he leased from the state and federal governments for years.

"A man has got a right to die at the home he spent his life building," Prather said recently. "I've decided to finish out my first 100 years here. You can't put a man out of his home."

The U. S. attorney in Albuquerque filed a "declaration of taking" yesterday. It gave the federal government possession of a 314,365-acre tract to become part of the McGregor range. At the same time, the federal attorney's office deposited $341,425 as "just compensation" for the confiscated land.

Later, U. S. District Court in Albuquerque ordered several ranchers, one of them Prather, to give up their property by March 30.

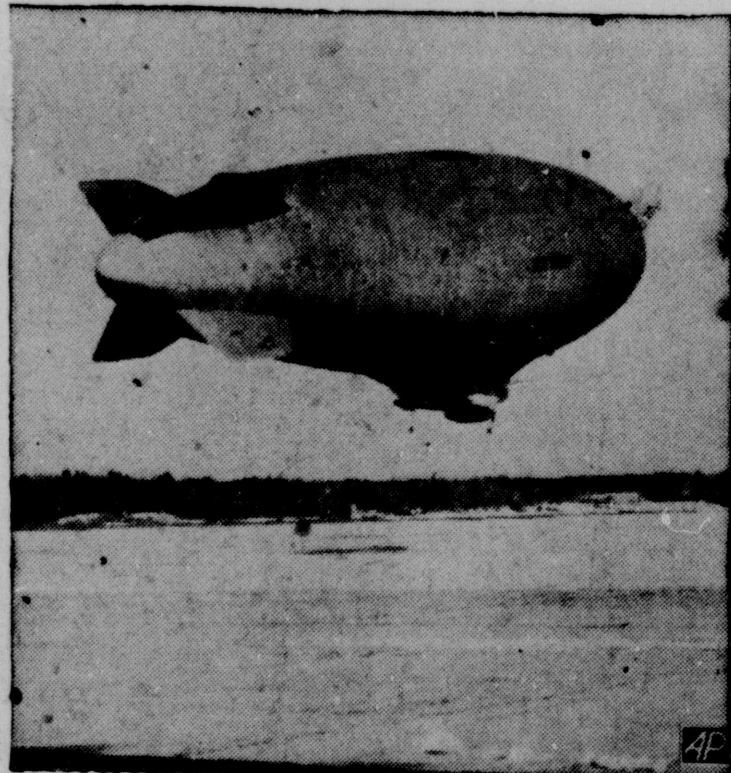

Asst. U. S. Atty. Joseph McNeany delivered the declaration and compensation check to the U. S. court clerk's office in behalf of the Army, which wants the land to expand its guided missile training program.

Last summer the federal government filed condemnation proceedings against ranchers on the vast tract. It has been negotiating with various owners ever since.

A government spokesman said only a third of Prather's ranch is included in the acquisition, but in that third is his home. He said Prather had been offered about $150,000 for that part.

U. S. Atty. Paul Larrazolo said if the ranchers are still there by March 30 and the Army asks the U. S. attorney's office to remove them, then further steps will be taken.

Prather has steadfastly maintained his land is not for sale. He has said if the government forces him out of his home, it will be "in a box."

NAVY AIRSHIP ON RECORD-BREAKING FLIGHT—The Navy Airship ZPG-2 which Wednesday broke the existing airship record for non-refueled flight, is shown shortly after it took off recently from the Navy Air Station at South Weymouth, Mass. The 343-foot ship, carrying almost a million cubic feet of helium, passed the Canary Islands, the African Coast and was in the vicinity of the Virgin Islands when it established the new record. The Navy said the ZPG-2 before it lands again "probably will set a new unofficial distance record for airships." (AP Wirephoto).

Students Receive Awards In Regional Art Contest

By Beverly Long
Lynn Jackson and Francis Self have received merit awards for pictures entered in the regional Scholastic Art Contest at Kansas City. The four gold key winners, Anne Uhr, Martha Bronson, Carol Savage and Jon Waller received their keys March 3. They were presented in a public ceremony at the Nelson Art Gallery in Kansas City.

The Senior High Assembly was presented by the dramatics class last Wednesday. This, a fairly new department in Smith-Cotton, headed by Elbert L. Blair, presented "The Death of a Hired Man", a serious play with a slight touch of humor.

Intramural play tryouts are being held at Smith-Cotton this week for almost all the classes. The intramural plays will be presented April 12th.

Last Friday at Jefferson City five students from Smith-Cotton represented the speech department in the student congress held there. Wayne Brown and Tony Walch went as Senators, and Judy Jeldel, Priscilla Scott and Teddy Walch were selected to go as Representatives. These students debated in the Congress Hall and in the House of Representatives in the state capitol.

Last Tuesday, March 12, was E-B Day at Smith-Cotton. About 90 people from business organizations in Sedalia visited Smith-Cotton in a tour of the school and to visit the classes.

Friday afternoon the following students were excused from school to sing at a Garden Club meeting here in Sedalia. They are: Nan Ferguson, Barbara Mabry, Beverly Fawver, Sandra Mahnen, Pat Moore, Kay Caraway, Linda Turner, Judy Curran, Anna Lee Skidmore, Irene Shipley, Janice White, Bob Walch, Clifford Robinson, Harry Satterwhite, Jerry Fox, Dale Miller, Charles Robinson, Bob Kreger, Ken Williams, Don Edde and Jackson Way.

A tennis team is being organized at Smith-Cotton with Mr. Glavin as faculty sponsor, while Mr. Williams will be the team coach. This is a new sport on the Smith-Cotton campus.

The baseball team is being organized also with Mr. Gillmore as coach.

On March 2 several girls of the Future Teachers Club of Smith-Cotton attended the spring workshop of the Department of Classroom Teachers of the Central Missouri Teachers Association at Warrensburg. The girls attending were Barbara Freund, Emma Kindie, Diane Smith, Mary Jane Snavely, and Bonnie Shaw.

Kidnaped Tot Is Drowned In a Bathtub

DETROIT (AP)—Three-year-old Patricia Tiernan, who was kidnaped from her home in Pontiac yesterday, was found drowned last night in a bathtub at a small hotel in Detroit.

Police said they found the body after following directions given by a teen-age baby sitter who was picked up for loitering near the Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson.

State police in Jackson arrested Madeline Allred, 18, of Pontiac, after a prison guard reported he saw her run out of the prison lobby and hide under a car in the parking lot.

State troopers Roger Rivard and Donald Kirt said Miss Allred was undergoing routine questioning when suddenly she blurted out:

"But I did kill a baby down in Detroit today. I held her under water for two hours."

The troopers quoted her as saying, "I always had an urge to kill people." Then, they said, she gave the room number of a hotel in Detroit where Patricia's body could be found.

As police in Jackson questioned Miss Allred, they heard over the police radio that she was wanted as the baby sitter who had disappeared with Patricia from the home of the child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Tiernan of Pontiac.

Miss Allred had been employed as a baby sitter for the past three weeks by the Tiernans. Police quoted her as saying she was released from a state mental hospital in July of last year.

Patricia and the baby sitter were reported missing by a neighbor who had entered the Tiernan apartment and found the Tiernans' 11-month-old baby alone. The Tiernans were away at work.

Police quoted Miss Allred as saying that after drowning Patricia she left Detroit for Jackson to visit a brother serving a term at the state prison for burglary.

Miss Allred was taken to the Jackson County Jail, where she was held on an open charge for Detroit police.

Ward was treated for head cuts.

Jury Speeds Probe of Hoffa In $18,000 Bribery Scheme

U. S. Resumes Aid to Israel

Viewed as Press on Egypt

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The United States signaled a resumption of economic aid to Israel today in a way seemingly calculated to pressure Egypt into closer cooperation with efforts to pacify the Middle East.

State Department press officer Lincoln White disclosed at a news conference that consultations on resuming aid to Israel would start shortly. He said he expected the aid would be resumed after these consultations got under way.

But the press officer went blank when asked whether Egypt and Jordan could expect similar treatment. U. S. aid to these two Arab states was suspended at the same time as aid to Israel—when the Oct. 29 fighting broke out.

LISTS QUESTIONS
Secretary of State Dulles laid down rules at his March 5 news conference for resuming aid to Egypt. He said a whole series of questions were involved, and listed them as including:

"The reopening of the Suez Canal, the conditions under which it is reopened, the future status of the canal, the treatment of American business people in the area."

Dulles said that, in general, the U. S. aid program—totaling 65 million dollars to the three countries for the current fiscal year starting last July 1—could be resumed when things were returned to their pre-Oct. 29 status.

"There will be nothing automatic about any of these matters," Dulles said, "and probably each country will be dealt with on a country-by-country basis."

That was what White today indicated was being done. He said Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban last night asked Acting Secretary Christian Herter to resume "more normal relations" in the economic field.

Langley Declines To Talk

Quoted on Tape
As Giving OK
On Gambling

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Poker-faced William Langley, district attorney of Portland, Ore., took the Fifth Amendment before the Senate committee investigating rackets today and refused to testify about gambling and prostitution in his bailiwick.

He listened to tape recordings of what purported to be conversations between him and a pair of gamblers but refused to say whether he recognized his own voice.

He also declined—on grounds of possible self-incrimination—to explain a $500 check drawn in his name by the Western Conference of Teamsters in 1954.

MADE BY THIRD GAMBLER

The tape recordings, made secretly by a third gambler who thought he was being double-crossed, quoted Langley as saying it was "all right" to run card games, handbooks, pinball machines and punchboards.

They also quoted him as saying "I want my eighty-five hundred" and then saying a few seconds later: "You guys can have the eighty-five hundred."

It was the 11th day of the Senate committee's investigation of alleged links between public officials in Portland, high-ranking members of the Teamsters Union there and the underworld.

The big marble caucus room in the Senate Office Building was packed with spectators, some standing five and six deep against the walls.

BREWSTER TO TESTIFY

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) announced that the Portland phase of its nationwide inquiry into racketeering in labor and industry may be completed tomorrow with the testimony of Fran W. Brewster, head of the 11-state Western Conference of Teamsters.

The playing of the tape recordings was one of the high points of the day's proceedings. When it was finished McClellan asked Langley whether "you heard your voice."

"I decline to answer on grounds of the Fifth Amendment," Langley replied. "I don't want to affirm or deny."

CAMPAIGN FUND FLAW

A little later Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel, told Langley he had found a "discrepancy" of about $1,000 in Langley's campaign fund report.

Kennedy said the Teamster's Oregon Council listed $3,160.88 in contributions to Langley in 1954 but the report of "the William M. Langley for District Attorney Committee" listed only $2,160.88.

Charged With Plot to Plant Spy in Query

Senators Say Union Leader
Sought Advance Probe Tips
By Bribing Inquiry Staffer

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The government moved swiftly today—with a grand jury investigation—in the case of Jimmy Hoffa, Teamsters Union bigshot accused of a plot to plant a spy in the midst of the Senate's racket probes.

The cocky, dapper Hoffa, asserting innocence, said he would fight "until I am cleared."

But his senatorial accusers seemed satisfied they had the goods on him and could send him to prison on charges of an $18,000 bribery scheme. They said the scheme was designed to obtain advance tips on what the Senate investigators were up to.

The maximum possible punishment on conviction of bribery, is 3-years on each count and a fine of three times the amount of the bribe.

The grand jury began looking into the case this afternoon, and Dist. Atty. Oliver Gasch said it would meet again tomorrow.

HEARS KEY WITNESS

The jury met under unusually secret circumstances with doors to several connecting rooms locked. However, it was learned that lawyer John C. Cheasty, key witness, appeared before the jury. He is the man who, the government says, skillfully acted a double role—ostensibly a spy for Hoffa but really working with the FBI.

The charges were presented to the grand jury by James W. Knapp, of the Department of Justice's Criminal Division and by Edward P. Troxell, principal assistant U. S. district attorney.

It had been only a little more than 12 hours since FBI agents, working with the special Senate rackets investigation committee, had picked up Hoffa on the bribery charge.

"Mr. Hoffa was arrested with the papers on him," observed Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.), who used to be a prosecuting attorney down in Arkansas.

LAUDS PROBE TEAM

And Sen. Mundt (R-SD), speaking of "high officials of the Teamsters Union trying to steal documents and records, commented:

"I think that our staff and the FBI are to be congratulated in demonstrating to the country that goon squad methods applied to the Hoffa case."

Ike Boards Missile Ship For Bermuda

AT SEA WITH EISENHOWER, March 14.—President Eisenhower sailed tonight for Bermuda on the guided missile cruiser Canberra after a visit at Norfolk with old comrades in arms.

The warship's 1,200 officers and men stood smartly at attention as the President boarded the brilliantly floodlighted ship at 7:15 p. m.

Minutes later the Canberra cast off her line and eased from her pier at this giant naval base into the smooth waters of Hampton Roads. Then she turned her bow seaward and left the United States astern.

The Canberra's four deadly Terrier missiles pointed to the moonlit sky as the ship cut through the water.

MEET NAVAL OFFICERS

After the President boarded the ship he paused at the rail for a moment to permit photographers on the pier to take his picture, then headed immediately for his quarters.

Prior to sailing, Eisenhower met at Atlantic Supreme Allied Command headquarters at Norfolk with key naval officers of the United States and seven other nations.

He praised the international command for "valuable work they are doing not only for the NATO nations but for the entire free world in maintaining control of vital Atlantic lifelines between the Western Hemisphere and Europe."

SEEKS HEALTH BOOST

The President is taking the slow cruise to Bermuda in the hope of improving his health. He has been bothered for several weeks by a stubborn cough and he recently developed a new head cold and inflammation of the eustachian tube in his left ear.

Eisenhower is scheduled to arrive at Bermuda next Wednesday afternoon. The next day he will commence four days of talks with British Prime Minister Macmillan. Those will range over such problems as the tense Middle East situation and the strength of North Atlantic Treaty forces in Western Europe.

Asks for Re-Hearing In Iowa Murder Case

DES MOINES, March 14.—Warren Jack Nutter, 19, of Freeport, Ill., asked the Iowa Supreme Court today for a re-hearing of the murder case in which Nutter was sentenced to be hanged.

Nutter was sentenced for the Jan. 19, 1956 slaying of policeman Harold Pearce of Independence, Iowa, in an escape attempt. He originally was sentenced to die Feb. 18, 1957 but court proceedings postponed indefinitely the date of execution.

On Feb. 5 the Iowa Supreme Court upheld the death sentence but Nutter subsequently was granted until March 18 to petition for a rehearing of his appeal. If a rehearing is denied, Nutter then is expected to ask Gov. Herschel Loveless to commute the death penalty. The governor has said he would give serious consideration to such a plea.

G.O.P. City Convention

School and Council Candidates Named

The Republican City Convention was held Thursday night in the Assembly Room of the Courthouse at which time the member of the Sedalia School Board was nominated and the party candidates for Councilmen from the four wards.

Mrs. Mary Studer, 906 South Barrett, wife of former Mayor Herbert Studer, was elected the Republican candidate to the School Board. Nomination at the party convention is almost the same as election to the Board as it is a non-partisan board and only two members are to be elected.

DEFEATS BROUGHER

Mrs. Studer defeated Harry Brougher, present Republican member of the Board. She won by a vote of 65 to 25, one voting delegate being absent.

This was the only fight on the convention floor, the candidates for the City Council being nominated without opposition.

First ward candidate is William A. "Bill" Derendinger, 2619 North Woodlawn Drive; Second Ward, Leroy Iuchs, 120 East Seventh; Third Ward, William H. Guenther, 1608 East 10th; and Fourth Ward, Richard M. "Dick" Battles, 1715 South Beacon.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Cleo Schumacher, City chairman.

Grants St. Joe Delay On Nursing Home Law

ST. JOSEPH, March 14.—A moratorium on enforcement of the new state nursing home law has been allowed the city of St. Joseph.

The delay was granted by Jack Stapleton, administrative assistant to Gov. James T. Blair. It was given after Mayor Stanley I. Dale protested against the law.

The mayor said the new law would force the closing of all 23 licensed nursing homes in St. Joseph. None of those homes, including one owned by the city, could meet all requirements, he stated. The St. Joseph homes approximately 450 patients.

Dale said Stapleton had told him to "hold up" enforcement of the law until after the matter had been reviewed by Blair. The governor, Stapleton said, was ill at his home today.

MANCHESTER, England, March 14.—A Viscount airliner plowed into a housing development while coming in for a landing today and burst into flame, killing all 20 persons aboard.

Hours later, the bodies of a woman and child were found in the rubble of one of three houses wrecked by the flaming craft. A woman and her 2-year-old son had been reported missing.

Two Convicted Tax Violators Denied Releases

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Supreme Court justices today denied applications for release on bail filed by Poncet Davis of Akron, Ohio, and Thomas W. Banks of Minneapolis, Minn., both serving prison terms for federal income tax violations.

Justice Burton rejected the request of Davis. Justice Clark denied the request of Banks. Both justices cited a rule that such applications must be taken first to U. S. Circuit Courts.

Both Davis and Banks asked freedom on bond pending final rulings on a legal issue in their cases.

Both raised the same issue on which Frank Costello, big-time New York racketeer, and L. B. Binion of Dallas, Tex., were granted bail by the high court last week.

In all the cases the petitions contended sentences were pronounced under the wrong statute. The defendants say they should have been sentenced under a 1939 law which set a limit of one year on sentences for the tax offense charged.

Davis is serving a four-year term in the Medical Center at Springfield, Mo. He will be eligible for parole Sept. 27; if he is not paroled his term will be up on June 26, 1959.

Delays Action on Brennan

Several Presidential Nominations Okayed

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The Senate today confirmed more than a dozen presidential nominations but delayed action on appointment of William Joseph Brennan Jr. to the Supreme Court because of the absence of his chief critic, Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

McCarthy's office said the senator was in Phoenix, Ariz. with his wife and their adopted daughter. Aides said McCarthy obtained Senate permission Monday to be absent until next Tuesday on official business of the special committee on alleged racketeering in labor and industry.

JOHNSON ASKS DELAY

The delay in Senate action on Brennan's appointment, a usual courtesy to an absent senator, was requested by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader.

At hearings before the Senate Judiciary Committee, McCarthy contended Brennan had been unduly critical of congressional investigators of communism and subversion. Brennan disputed this and received the committee's unanimous recommendation for

Gives Talk On Middle East Problems

The regular meeting of the Sedalia Chapter of the American Association of University Women was held on Monday evening, March 4, at the home of Mrs. Virginia McNeil. Highlight of the program was a talk by Mrs. Marian Knight, an instructor of Social Studies at the Smith-Cotton High School, on current happenings in the Middle East, and their importance to people in the United States. In her talk, Mrs. Knight traced the history of the trouble, stressing the importance of the vast oil resources of the area and the struggle for oil control for many years. The United States is very concerned over this problem, due to the amounts of money by American investors in developing and importing oil products so necessary to our progress and prosperity. Further difficulty is arising from the spirit of nationalism that is sweeping through the Arab countries — and which has been on the increase in recent years. Mrs. Knight also stressed the idea of Russian desires to own a warm water port — so that shipping could be continued in winter months. This is causing the Soviet Union to exert its influence in attempting to disrupt Western influence. With the passing of the era of colonialism and imperialism, it was the opinion of Mrs. Knight that the Western world must drop its idea of superiority, and to cultivate trust and comradeship in dealing with the Middle Eastern powers.

Mrs. Knight also talked of the missions, which are mostly schools conducted under the English Plan, and described habits and customs of the peoples of these countries.

Preceding Mrs. Knight's discussion, plans were made to have a rummage and bake sale, to help in sponsoring another American Field Service student to Sedalia next fall. It was also decided to have a card party after Easter at Smith-Cotton High School, with complete plans to be made later. The annual tea for senior girls was also discussed.

Mrs. Thelma Cook presided at the business meeting.

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church of Windsor met Friday for a day of prayer for Home Missions. Mrs. W. H. Maxwell, vice-president, called the meeting to order and Mrs. Ross Feaster led in prayer.

Mrs. J. D. Givens was leader of the home mission program. She opened the meeting with the group singing, "Love Divine," using the theme, "Love." Parts of the program were "Love-Give-Pray-Go-Live." Mrs. Feaster gave the devotional — following with prayer. Others assisting with the program were Mrs. L. A. Corson, Mrs. Lillie Raney, Mrs. I. M. Grinstead and Mrs. Evangeline Bailey. Elfrieda Hagen, Wilbert Meyer Wed On Her Parents' Anniversary

At 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, February 24, Miss Elfrieda Hagen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Hagen, Cole Camp, exchanged wedding vows with Wilbert Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meyer, also of Cole Camp, at the Holy Cross Lutheran Church. The Rev. J. C. Scheller performed the double ring ceremony before a background of white gladioli and mums.

The chosen wedding date was the 25th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hagen were married in Yuma, Colo., and have lived in Cole Camp since 1950.

Proceeding the ceremony Eric Helms played a medley of wedding music and accompanied Henry Lange, uncle of the bride, as he sang, "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love". The traditional wedding march was used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin and alencon lace. The fitted bodice featured a lace yoke and long sleeves which tapered to points over the hands. The softly gathered skirt was worn over hoops. Her fingertip length veil of silk illusion fell from a halo of net and satin rosebuds. She carried a bouquet of white carnations interspersed with white satin ribbon.

Miss Mary Ann Lange, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Alice Harms, Sedalia, was bridesmaid. Miss Lange wore a floor length dress of pink taffeta with net overskirt designed with fitted bodice which featured a scoop neckline. She carried a colonial bouquet of blue carnations. Miss Harms' gown of blue taffeta and net was designed identical to the honor attendant's and she carried pink carnations.

Vernon Meyer served as his brother's best man and Arthur Hagen, Ft. Leonard Wood, brother of the bride, was groomsman. Roger

Irrigating 4-H Gardens

Did you ever see a thirsty garden? I am sure you have. I am sure that you have seen an entire spring's effort ruined by one dry period. Maybe just one good drink would have tided the plants over until the rains came. Joyce Stephens and Barry Ellis from the Longwood 4-H Club, both had a successful year with irrigating their garden last year.

You 4-H members who have enrolled in vegetable projects will want to consider making your garden a real demonstration garden—one that you will be delighted to show other members and parents on a project tour.

Let's think for a moment of those of you who are doing Vegetable II—that's the market vegetable project. Let's suppose you have surveyed the local market needs, found a good market outlet for one or more vegetables, followed the vegetable calendar, selected your varieties with care, tested your soil, and applied fertilizer according to soil test. In fact, you have removed all the limiting factors within your power except one. That one is dry weather at a critical time.

If and when that dry weather comes, what are you going to do about it? Are you going to fold your hands and say, "It's too bad. I had such good prospects."

Or are you going to try to do something about it? The thing to try of course is irrigation. It's hardly worthwhile to talk about irrigation unless there is a source of supply of water adequate to the situation but probably you have that source of supply if you will harness it and use it. One of the best possible sources of supply of water for irrigation on a farm is a good farm pond so located that it will feed down to the farmstead by gravity. Some of you will have well water or a spring that will supply enough water to irrigate a garden.

Extension specialists Arthur Gaus, horticulturist, and Herman Hall, agricultural engineer, are both very much interested in this garden irrigation program and are preparing some reference material for those interested.

If you have any one of the vegetable projects, think this irrigation idea over. Talk to your parents, and your leader.

Wood Speaks To Optimists On Employed

At the regular noon meeting of the Optimist Club at the Bothwell Hotel Tuesday, Ed Wood, training supervisor for the Division of Employment Security of Missouri, told of the program and objectives of his department.

Wood stated that his department operates employment offices and administers unemployment insurance through its 31 offices in Missouri with state headquarters in Jefferson City. Approximately 31,000 Missouri businesses are affected by the program.

The meeting was conducted by Dr. C. J. Blach, president. Singing was led by Charles Hanna, and the invocation was given by Dr. K. L. Holden.

Dr. Russell Drenon announced that the Optimist Basketball Tournament will be held this Saturday and Sunday at Horace Mann Gym and that trophies will be awarded to the first three teams.

The guest speaker told the Optimists that the largest state employment office is in St. Louis and employs around 300 people and the smallest office employs three people. These offices interlock with 1,800 offices throughout the nation.

In the offices workers are skilled and trained to give aptitude tests to determine the applicants' qualifications and fill the job positions available more effectively. The results of these tests are validated by comparing with successful people with the same qualifications.

Each office has its counselors who help with problems. In southeast Missouri a way-station is maintained for migratory workers, as a service of the office.

It is also the duty of the office to gather information concerning each applicant for unemployment insurance.

As the blaze died down, the airliner's twisted tail and fuselage were draped across the gardens of the houses. Police, firemen, nurses and volunteers worked frantically in the hope of finding someone alive in the wreckage.

The city fire brigade chief stood on top of the smoking mass shouting orders as rescue workers toiled with bare hands. Many were burned.

SCHOOL AS MORTUARY

A nearby school was converted into a mortuary as bodies were removed.

The plane carried 12 men and 3 women passengers and a 5-man crew.

Mrs. Lily Boyle, who lives next door to one of the demolished houses, said: "I had been washing my hair and could hear the terrific noise of the airliner. I rushed upstairs for my three children. When I got to the top of the stairs there was a terrific bang and I thought the house was coming down on top of me. Immediately there was a ball of fire and part of the plane flew into my house and all the windows were smashed."

The plane was the flagship of the Discovery class of Viscounts, pride of Britain's commercial air fleet. It was the first Viscount to crash during a passenger flight.

United States Senate will not work."

In brief the government accusation against Hoffa runs like this: He bribed a lawyer to wangle a job in the Senate committee staff, then leak secret information to Hoffa about the investigators' upcoming moves. The lawyer went to the committee and told it of the proposition. He was hired, and, so the charge runs, passed papers to Hoffa under FBI guidance, and received money from Hoffa in return.

TO 'FIGHT UNTIL CLEARED'
Hoffa, who was seized by the FBI late last night as he started to the elevator for his room in the Dupont Plaza Hotel, quickly posted $25,000 through a professional bondsman and hired a lawyer, Edward Bennett Williams.

After a conference with Williams today, Hoffa read a statement to reporters saying he will "fight the case until I am cleared." He also said:

"I have been in the labor movement all my life and have had to fight labor's battles on the picket lines and in the courts against the forces opposed to trade unionism. This is not the first instance when a labor leader has been unjustly accused."

Yesterday the House advanced a bill barring discrimination against any applicant for state employment because of his race, creed, color, or national origin. It has passed the House before but never has survived in the Senate.

Man Owes Government For Moving Garage

DENVER (AP) — Roy Blake had his garage moved from one side of the backyard to another in suburban Wheat Ridge.

Now the government says he owes $4.35. That's for federal excise taxes on transportation of property by rail, motor vehicle, water or air "from one point in the United States to another."

Seems Blake had his garage jacked up on wheels and pulled across the yard by truck.

Farm Leaders Try to Mend 'Farm Bloc'

WASHINGTON (AP) — House farm leaders sought today to reunify the once invincible "farm bloc" after defeat of efforts to enact new subsidies for growers of corn and other feed grains.

The House, dividing along political and sectional lines, yesterday dealt a virtually unprecedented setback to moves to channel farm subsidies into both the surplus-glutted Midwest corn belt and other areas.

Every proposed subsidy program was rejected as the House ignored administration requests for relief to corn growers as well as rival Democratic proposals to expand payments to include all producers of livestock feed grains.

Ganging up on all proposals to increase present farm subsidy payments were big city members whose constituents are grocery store customers.

But when it was all over, chairman Cooley (D-NC) of the House Agriculture Committee announced that "as far as I am concerned, the corn legislation is not a dead item."

He told his colleagues he was willing to revive consideration of a future legislative course whenever Republicans were "willing to meet with us."

There was no indication when, or if, that would be.

Republicans so far have stood fast for limited aid to the corn belt. Democrats just as adamantly have stood for a "last chance" compromise to enlarge farm subsidies to benefit cotton, rice, tobacco and wheat farmers who have diverted their acreage to feed grain crops.

Not since 1948, when farm state members clashed over "trial run" legislation for production subsidy proposals of former Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan has the "farm bloc" been so bitterly divided.

Efforts to compromise Republican-Democratic difference failed so completely that Rep. H. Carl Andersen (R-Minn) called it "the wake of the farm bloc," which for most of the postwar years has united to push farm aid bills through Congress.

Recommend Group to Stop Discrimination

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — The Governmental Organization Committee today recommended that the House pass a bill establishing a human rights commission, to prevent discrimination against any racial or religious group.

At a hearing last night 19 spokesmen for labor, welfare, Negro and religious organizations told the committee the state government should have the responsibility of seeing that all groups are treated equally.

One speaker, John K. Bryant of St. Louis, differed. Representing the Missouri Hotel Assn. he urged that the state go slowly. Better racial relationships can be more fairly achieved by education than by "mandate of law," he said.

Yesterday the House advanced a bill barring discrimination against any applicant for state employment because of his race, creed, color, or national origin. It has passed the House before but never has survived in the Senate.

Group Starts Nursing Home Investigation

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — A special legislative committee has started its investigation of the Warrenton nursing home fire in an effort to determine whether new laws are needed to prevent future catastrophes.

Rep. William M. Turpin (D) of Pike County, vice chairman, said last night the first step would be to study the reports of all agencies that investigated the Feb. 17 blaze where 72 persons died.

Then on March 27, he committee will have a hearing for anyone who can shed any light on the cause of the disaster. Among those who will be invited to testify will be Maj. Gen. Ralph E. Truman (Ret.) of Springfield.

Truman was chairman of a special committee appointed by Gov. James T. Blair to draw up a set of fire safety regulations. Those rules, along with a new nursing home setup in the state health division, went into effect yesterday when the governor signed a new nursing home law.

Accidents

A truck loaded with corn driven by Homer Turnbull, Milo, Iowa, overturned on the east side of High- way 65 about 12 miles north of Sedalia about 4 a.m. Thursday. The truck, along with a "pup" trailer also loaded with corn, rolled over on its side, spilling the larger part of the loads of corn out on the ground.

Turnbull, according to Trooper Bob Stockell, said he fell asleep as he was driving and the truck slowly moved off the highway to the west side of the pavement.

The load was being hauled to Springfield to the Hawkins Milling Company.

Furnell's wrecker was called, the remaining load was shovelled off and the truck was pulled back to the highway and reloaded.
